

PRIVACY POLICY

By accepting of this provision you agree with processing of your personal information below.

Information about you stored in our database:

- 1) Email address – Email is used for confirmation of your account and for safety of your account. If you lose password, want to change it or make any changes to your account your email is required for that. We also send newsletters to your email.
- 2) Username – It is identifier of your account and it is not a personal information, so keep it in mind, your username is public for other users so they can identify you.
- 3) IP address - We are logging IP addresses of our users for safety of your accounts, if there are any problems or „scams“ and violation of our rules, we can identify by IP your other accounts. As well you can use IP lock, so you can login to your account just from your IP.
- 4) Password – To login to your account you need a password, you should create a unique password, so if anything happens your other social network account going to be safe. The passwords are hashed and nobody can see them